PEAK

PRESENTED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
MEDFIELD HIGH SCHOOL
MEDFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

FOREWORD

For twelve years we have been striving toward a pin-point of light vaguely known to us as graduation. So long obscure, enshrouded in the misty future, this pin-point has suddenly burst into a glowing flame, clearly illuminating not only our present graduation and our future development, but also our past experiences. These many experiences and memories, gay, stormy, unforgettable, we now present to you.

DEDICATION

To you, our very wonderful parents, the class of 1955 dedicates this yearbook. To Dad, who sees to it that there is gas in the car or a gown in the closet; who is always there to help with the tough math problem; who is proud of us in our defeats as well as in our triumphs. To Mom, who from the day we first opened our eyes has bandaged our hurt fingers and hurt feelings; who always has open arms and a sympathetic ear when the world is at its blackest; who uncomplainingly cooks and washes and cleans to make our home a place which we can proudly call our own. But most of all, to you both, for having endeavored to shape and mold us into individuals of whom America can truly be proud.

You have ignited the spark of ambition within us, continuously kindled and fanned the flame, encouraging, urging, inspiring. With sincere appreciation, gratitude, and love, we very proudly dedicate this 1955 "PEAK" to you, our parents.

It is with deep gratitude that we wish to express our sincere appreciation to you, Mrs. Olive Potter, our class advisor.

Without your wisdom, understanding, and youthful enthusiasm, the class of 1955 could not have reached its goal.

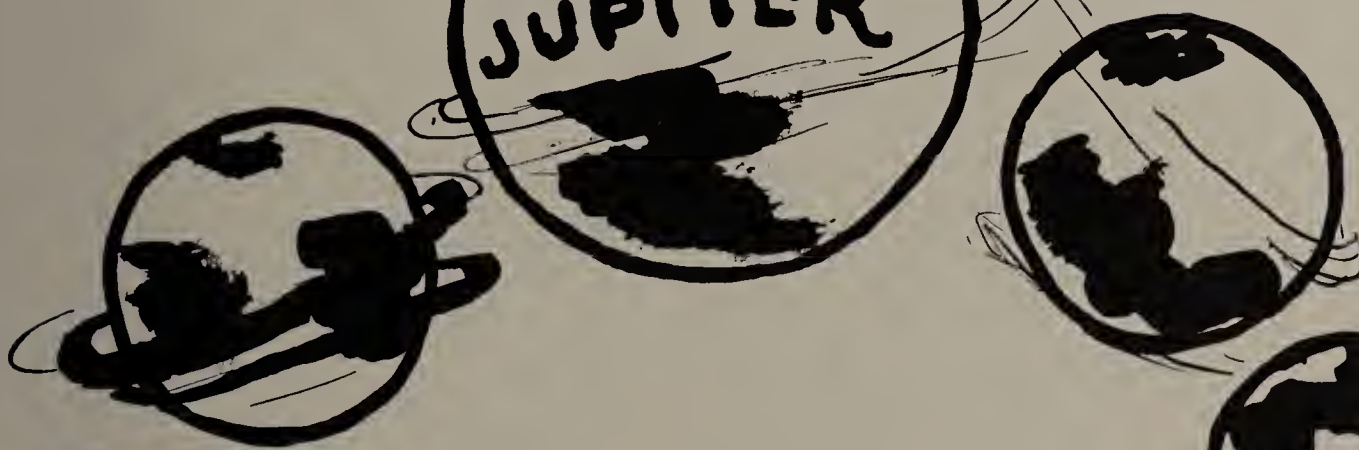

In every instance you have been considerate and fair; you have never failed to respect our ideas, our opinions, and our feelings. Thus you have become a never-ending source of inspiration to each of us.

Mrs. Potter, you can never become just a memory; for no matter where we go or what we do, you will be, as you are now, a definite part of us.

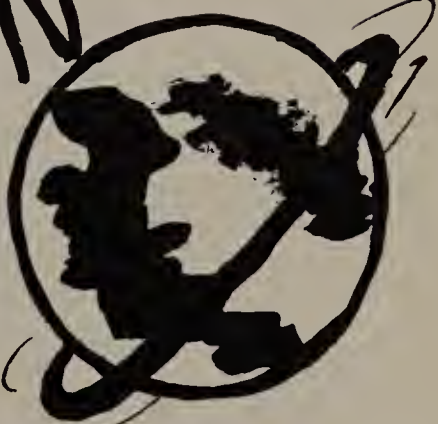

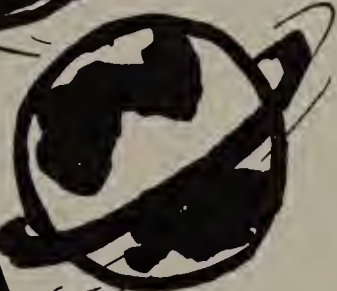

YEARBOOK STAFF—Dorothy Brickley, photography editor; Marie Oja, art editor; Joan Swallow, assistant editor; Barbara Mills, advertising manager; Nancy Frame, editor; Barbara Rossi, business manager.

The yearbook staff has accomplished the actual organization of this annual, but without the help and co-operation of both students and faculty, and of the townspeople and businessmen who helped the yearbook financially, this 1955 "PEAK" would never have been possible. We sincerely thank everyone for the encouragement and generosity so willingly displayed. We would also like to express our thanks to John O'Leary for contributing the cover photograph.

June 18, 1951

Dear Diary,

Today our long awaited graduation from the eighth grade brought a happy ending to the first eight years of a carefree school life.

With anxious hearts we are now dreaming of four of the best years of our lives—our Medfield High School days.

1951-'52

September, 1951

On September 5, we entered our newly assigned homeroom where Mr. Bergeron gave us a hearty welcome.

The class election was held, and since this was our first taste of high school politics, it caused great excitement. After the counting of the ballots, the results showed Kenneth Carpenter to be president; Arthur Milton, vice president; Bill Reynolds, secretary; Lee Howlett, treasurer. When Kenny left for Allston for the remainder of the year, Peggy Thibeau was voted to fill his position.

Following this election, there were two others in which Carol Silson and Marie Oja became the Freshmen cheerleaders, and Lee Howlett and Marie Oja were elected as Student Council Representatives. We also selected and ordered our class rings, which we will receive in the spring.

October 19, 1951

Tonight we nervously entered the gym expecting to receive the worst from our friends (?) the Juniors. After surviving the various and sundry stunts which made us full-fledged Freshmen, we enjoyed a dance held in our honor.

June 12, 1952

At the graduation exercises this evening, Nancy Frame and Bill Reynolds were the proud winners of the Freshman Awards.

1952-'53

September 3, 1952

Having entered our now familiar corridors and classrooms, we met Mrs. Potter, who is to be our class advisor for the next three years.

The class election this fall brought a change in officers: Joan Swallow, president; Arthur Milton, vice president; Lorraine Curry, secretary; and Sandra Harmon, treasurer.

Barbara Rossi and Norman Rossi, by joining our class, increased our number to thirty.

April 13, 1953

This afternoon after much hustling, we entertained our mothers by modeling old-fashioned gowns at a Mother-Daughter Tea.

This fashion tea, given by the girls of the class with the help of Mrs. Potter, was a great success.

June 11, 1953

Sandra Harmon and Kenny Carpenter were given the honor of being marshalls at the senior graduation tonight.

1953-'54

September 9, 1953

We enthusiastically began our Junior year by electing Priscilla Ehnes for president; Nancy Frame, vice president; Dorothy Aylward, secretary; and Marie Oja, treasurer.

We also chose Norman Rossi to serve on the Student Council in place of Lee Howlett who is now attending Lenox School.

Although several members of the class have left, we welcomed Connie Davis, Al Martino and Eddie Getchell as new classmates.

In a school election, Mary Hinkley was chosen to replace Carol Silson as cheerleader since Carol has moved to Randolph.

October 23, 1953

Dissatisfied with the ease with which the new freshmen were entering high school, tonight we gave them a thorough and amusing initiation. Following the stunts, the freshmen were given a chance to mingle with the upper classmen and they found us human after all.

Tomorrow the recently organized Athletic Council will meet; representing us will be Joan Swallow and Bill Reynolds who are sure to do a fine job.

April 30, 1954

Afternoon

Well, it's April 30th and we're all in a dither due to the confusion and excitement of the greatest of all events—our Junior Prom. We've spent the last four months planning, and all day today magically transforming the gym into a ballroom. At last everything is at the height of perfection!

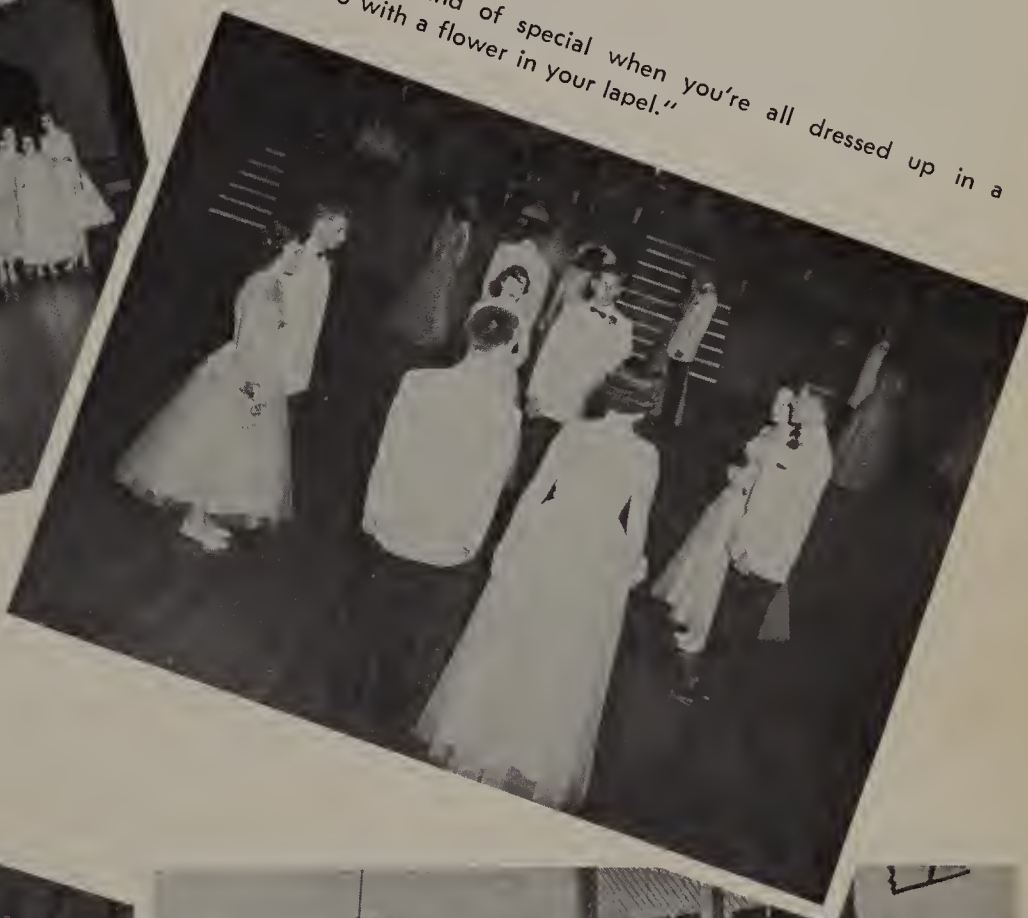

Evening

Came the long awaited moment when the orchestra struck up the familiar strains of the Emperor Waltz, and our prom had begun. Being able to dance to Baron Hugo's music in a canopy-covered garden was the fulfillment of all our dreams.

"A beautiful prom, and it's my prom."

"Our Prom is the talk of the town!"

"You feel kind of special when you're all dressed up in a tuxedo with a flower in your lapel."

"A brick walled fountain softly illuminated by colored lights."

"... an air of sophistication."

A midnight supper at "The Meadows" climaxed the evening.

June 3, 1954

Tonight we held the traditional Junior-Senior Banquet at which everyone enjoyed a delicious dinner prepared by the Mothers' Club.

The final touch to a wonderful evening was the record hop directly after the banquet.

June 16, 1954

Many honors were bestowed today! Marie Oja and Norman Rossi were chosen as Marshalls for graduation this evening, and the delegates for Boys' State and Girls' State were announced. Norman Rossi and Beverly Hull are the representatives, Bill Reynolds and Priscilla Ehnes their respective alternates.

1954-'55

September, 1954

We are now twenty-eight—twenty eight seniors preparing for the climax of our high school career. Judie Peterson and Robert Rooney have come from other schools to do their part.

Our leaders of this final most important year were chosen: Norman Rossi, president; Bill Reynolds, vice president; Lorraine Curry, secretary; Kenny Carpenter, treasurer.

Since the last election when Connie Davis became the substitute cheerleader, we have begun concentrating on the social activities of the year. Among these events, several record hops and paper drives will play a major part.

October 1, 1954

This afternoon Bill Reynolds, Barbara Rossi, Marie Oja, Judie Peterson and Norman Rossi traveled to Boston to broadcast our current record poll on Bob Clayton's "Boston Ballroom" program.

Organized in the spring of 1954, the yearbook staff is now beginning to bustle with activity. Under the direction of Nancy Frame, editor-in-chief, work will undoubtedly proceed smoothly until the hectic deadline day in March.

November 26, 1954

Not content with only the Hobo Dance preceding the Thanksgiving football game, we again decorated the gym, and with the music of George Perkin's Coronets, we all enjoyed the Thanksgiving Ball.

December 17, 1954

Having completed the first half of our year as seniors, tonight's lively Christmas Dance really set us in the mood for enjoying a vacation filled with the holiday excitement.

Upon returning to school we will immediately begin rehearsing for the Minstrel Show to be held in February.

February 12, 1955

Dancing to recorded music at the Valentine Dance tonight was really lots of fun especially for Jeanne Sargent and Bob D'Antonio who have been chosen "King and Queen of Hearts."

The extra special atmosphere lent by the "Tru-Tones" and Dan Cupid made our dance a huge success.

February 18, 1955

Tonight's Minstrel Show, in which every senior performed a specialty act, brought many congratulations to the entire cast. With the aid of the Mothers' Club and the expert direction of Tom Sweeney the success of the show went far beyond our expectations.

March, 1955

With most of the years' activities drawing to a close, we are now preparing for the senior play, "Hot Water," which will be held April 15th, followed by the class trip to Washington for the week of April 18.

We have yet to experience our long anticipated graduation and reception—the perfect ending to our never-to-be-forgotten Medfield High School days.

CLASS PROPHECY

DOTTIE and I met in Washington, D. C. and traveled the rest of the way to New York together. As the train sped along we proceeded to find out what each other had been doing since we graduated.

Dottie has been working for the government in Washington, announcing guests at the international parties of Perle Mesta.

My husband and I are the proud proprietors of the most famous Flamingo farm in the South.

The next three days were to be the first reunion in fifteen years of the class of '55. It was to be held in the latest addition to NORMAN ROSSI'S nationwide chain of hotels.

As we pulled into Grand Central Station we were greeted by LARRY NYE who was driving his newest model—the Packard double-deckered taxicab. We got in and sat down beside a woman who looked vaguely familiar. It was BARBARA ROSSI, who had become a combination secretary and girl Friday to Dave Garroway on his morning television show.

Our first stop was at a fashionable apartment house on Park Avenue. CAROLE SHANKS and SHIRLEY SHADE shared an apartment, just as they had planned in high school. They both held very important positions in Macy's Department Store—Carole as head of the payroll department and Shirley as her able assistant.

Our next stop was Fashion Towers, the swank dress shop owned by our former classmate, BEVERLY HULL. This shop specialized in fashions for tall girls.

With a car full of friends we headed for the hotel.

JUDIE (PETERSON) ROSSI met us at the door and showed us to our rooms. She and Norm had left their Connecticut estate and their eight children to act as hosts at our reunion.

We changed into our bathing suits and met again in a half hour at the hotel pool. Looking up to the eighty foot diving board, who should we see but EDDIE GETCHELL. After a beautiful dive and a few hundred greetings later, Ed told us that this reunion was just what he needed. It seemed he had been working on some secret government chemical research for five years and it was about time he had a vacation.

HERB SMITH and BOB ROONEY joined us as we went in for lunch. Herb owns a chain of food stores and Bob is his general manager. Bob is married now and resides in his home state of New Hampshire.

Later that afternoon we visited the Museum of Modern Art where MARIE OJA'S paintings were on exhibit. We weren't able to see Marie, though, as she was in Paris painting the Eiffel Tower. Norm told us later that she had painted murals in three of his hotels.

On our way back to the hotel, I bought a newspaper. In it we found two interesting articles. "ARTHUR MILTON, winner of the Daytona Beach Finals, will race at the Indianapolis Speedway tomorrow afternoon" and "GARY FRASER, star halfback for the Los Angeles Rams, will play in the Championship game on Sunday."

At dinner that evening Norman told us that NANCY FRAME and DOROTHY BRICKLEY were spending six months in an unexplored part of Africa writing about and photographing the wild animals and natives.

SANDEE PELON, at that time, was at the Women's Reformatory in Sherborn, Massachusetts, getting inside information for her new book Inside the Walls of a Ladies' Prison.

Gary arrived for the party that evening but retired early to keep in training for the big game.

BARBARA MILLS, who had just finished her last show of the evening at Radio City, tripped in. She is now a member of the world famous Rockettes.

After a wonderful evening we each retired to our rooms.

The next morning we arose bright and early to find three more classmates; CONNIE DAVIS, BETTY BOSSELMAN and MARY HINKLEY. Connie is now at M.H.S. taking Mrs. Pederzini's place; and Betty is teaching gym in Melrose High. Mary is the head nurse in the Maternity ward at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Brighton.

Walking past Saks Fifth Avenue we noticed that there was going to be a fashion show. How pleasantly surprised we were to find that one of the models was LORRAINE CURRY. The highlight of the show, modeled by Lorraine, was a beautiful new wedding gown which brought back memories of our Sophomore "Mother-Daughter Tea."

Later, we six decided to go for a walk through Central Park. As we left the hotel we noticed two sailors following us. A few blocks farther on they caught up to us and we recognized them to be BILL REYNOLDS and KEN CARPENTER. They told us they were here to meet Gary as he was training in Central Park.

Suddenly we heard a resounding crash and a loud voice; turning around we saw ROBERT JOHNSON and Gary sitting amidst a pile of suitcases. Gary, on his third lap around the fish pond, had been so intent on getting into shape, that he had not seen Wimpy.

After setting things aright, we left the boys to themselves and continued on our way. Fortunately, we were able to get tickets for a T.V. show.

As we were leaving the elevator, we bumped into SANDY HARMON on her way to do a commercial for "Father Fletcher's Freckle Fader." We made hurried arrangements to meet after the show.

Imagine our delight when we discovered that PRISCILLA EHNEs had become quite a well-known television personality. Miss Frances had retired from T.V. and Miss Ehnes now presides over "Ding Dong School."

After the program we picked up Sandy, Priscilla, and Lorry and went to Rockefeller Center where everyone was having lunch.

As we sat talking, Wimpy told us of his prosperous international transportation business. He is very proud of his motto—"On the ground or in the sky, we always aim to satisfy."

Ken and Bill are going to be discharged next month. Ken plans to return to Turkey Haven, his farm in Medfield. Bill plans to accept the position offered to coach at East Bridgewater.

After lunch we went shopping and then returned to our hotel to prepare for our last big fling.

At seven o'clock we all met at the St. James Theatre to attend the premiere of "The Debutante" starring PEGGY THIBEAU.

As we were leaving we met Mr. and Mrs. Potter who had come to N. Y. for their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

We invited them to the hotel and held a party in their honor.

In the morning plans were made for our next reunion.

As the train left Grand Central Station, we knew we would always have happy memories of our wonderful reunion.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS OF M.H.S.

We, the unbalanced class of 1955, of Medfield High School, about to be released from our ball and chain and to see once more the light of day, do hereby will to the remaining prisoners, our cherished titles, trinkets, and toys.

ARTICLE I: Lawrence Nye leaves to the "Cowboys" of the Junior Class, his well-polished boots.

ARTICLE II: Sandra Harmon tearfully leaves Gary to Gretchen.

ARTICLE III: Eddie Getchell leaves his knowledge of chemistry to Albert Einstein.

ARTICLE IV: Barbara Mills passes on the honor of being the noisemaker of the class to Nancy White.

ARTICLE V: Billy Reynolds leaves his innocent appearance and devilish character to John Belmont.

ARTICLE VI: Bev Hull leaves her faithful "Little Monster" and a quarter for a month's supply of gas to Peter Stagg who will fit it better than she did.

ARTICLE VII: Dottie Aylward leaves as quietly as she entered.

ARTICLE VIII: Kenny Carpenter leaves his football shoes to David Kimpton.

ARTICLE IX: Nancy Frame bequeaths her title as "Rudy's Best Pal" to a pair of pals, the Nowers twins and wills her seat in the office to Mario Ippolitti.

ARTICLE X: Betty Bosselman leaves her talent of lighting up the room with a high-colored blush.

ARTICLE XI: Arthur Milton willingly leaves his textbooks to the school.

ARTICLE XII: Sandee Pelon leaves her walk to the swinging doors.

ARTICLE XIII: Herb Smith leaves his request for higher doorways to Mr. Hastings.

ARTICLE XIV: Judie Peterson leaves her golden tresses to Loretta Stuart.

ARTICLE XV: Mary Hinkley leaves her can-can costume and ability to Anne Elworthy.

ARTICLE XVI: Gary Fraser leaves his heartbroken female followers to Norman Lougee.

ARTICLE XVII: Marie Oja leaves a bus to next year's cheerleaders to get them to the games.

ARTICLE XVIII: Barbara Rossi leaves her title of "heartbreaker" to Nancy Rankin.

ARTICLE XIX: "Dancing Daisy" Rooney leaves his position in the chorus line to Joe McCarthy.

ARTICLE XX: Shirley Shade and Carol Shanks bequeath their half-pint size to Peggy Tucker and Agnes Waldron:

ARTICLE XXI: Priscilla Ehnes leaves her homemaking ability to David Darling.

ARTICLE XXII: Norman Rossi doesn't leave anything. He's taking Judie with him.

ARTICLE XXIII: Joan Swallow leaves a copy of her book entitled Lessons on Love—Southern Style to Priscilla Hull.

ARTICLE XXIV: Connie Davis leaves some advice about the Norfolk boys to Joanne Gugliotta.

ARTICLE XXV: Wimpy "Romeo" Johnson leaves a full moon and a secluded spot on lovers' lane to Peter Frame.

ARTICLE XXVI: Dotty Brickley leaves a flashbulb to next year's yearbook photographer.

ARTICLE XXVII: Lorraine Curry passes on her sweet melodious voice to Josie Bravo.

ARTICLE XXVIII: To Mrs. Potter we leave a golden book of pleasant memories and our sincere wishes for continued happiness.

ARTICLE XXIX: To Mr. McLin we leave peace and quiet.

ARTICLE XXX: To Mrs. Kerr we leave an escalator for running up and downstairs with office summons.

ARTICLE XXXI: To Mrs. Pederzini we leave an "Oscar" for her outstanding performance in the French production "Pain de la Ville" and a trophy for her excellence on the golf course.

ARTICLE XXXII: To Mr. McGrath we leave magnetized study hall chairs to draw students to their assigned seats, and chains to keep them there.

ARTICLE XXXIII: To Mrs. Warburton we leave some of Einstein's children.

ARTICLE XXXIV: To Mrs. Richardson we leave a litter of cats to replace the ones that are leaving.

ARTICLE XXXV: To Mr. Shaw we leave a bottle of "Tintair" to cover up those gray hairs received in the Drivers' Ed car.

ARTICLE XXXVI: To Mrs. Merritt we leave a cookbook to solve her present problems.

ARTICLE XXXVII: To Mr. Hastings we leave a pair of roller skates to chase next year's undecided seniors.

ARTICLE XXXVIII: To Mrs. Washburn we leave a football helmet and padding to protect her against next year's grammar school Indians.

ARTICLE XXXIX: To Mrs. Kellem we leave the key to the "Oracle chains" so that she may be released for the summer months.

ARTICLE XL: To Mr. Mains we leave a son, as daughters are dangerous.

ARTICLE XLI: To Mrs. Barnes we leave a class of well-behaved students.

ARTICLE XLII: To the Juniors we leave a book on the fine art of being a Senior.

ARTICLE XLIII: To the Sophomores we leave a box of flying erasers, study hall games, and absence excuses for future use.

ARTICLE XLIV: To the Freshmen we pass on our motto "early to bed and early to rise."

We, the undersigned, having devised this our last will and testament in the solitude of our cells, do hereby declare in our half-demented and slightly moldy condition, having subscribed our names in our presence and the presence of each other, that this instrument is completely null and void as of this day, the ninth day of March, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-five.

*As we start to journey forth
We have but memories of our past,
Friendships, youth, and innocence,
Learning that will last.
No hands to guide us now
We must grope our way alone.
Leading characters upon a larger stage
In parts we've never known.
In each scene we have played our role
Our aim . . . always to win.
And now our curtain falls to let
A new and greater play begin.*

*As we come to the end of our days at Medfield High
There is sorrow and grief in our heart
For the friends who have cared and the things we've all shared;
Tonight we are drifting apart.
We have ideals and hope and a goal we have set
For a future that's worth all our strife.
We will aim for the best, but above all the rest
These memories will linger for life.
But we'll cherish the things we have learned
And the name of old Medfield High
As our minds now in praises are turned
She will live in our hearts 'til we die!*

JUNIOR REPORT

The first meeting of the Junior class was devoted to the election of officers for the year. These officers are as follows:

President	PETER STAGG
Vice President	PAUL COX
Secretary	HELEN SMITH
Treasurer	JOHN BELMONT

The several meetings which followed concerned preparations for our Junior-Freshman Frolic, which was held on October 28, 1954, for the purpose of thoroughly initiating the new Freshman class. On the day of the twenty-eighth the Freshman came to school in elegant costumes of diapers, patch dresses, and dyed mops. In the evening the Freshman performed nobly in a series of stunts prepared by their Junior friends (!). Following the stunts, there were refreshments and dancing for everyone. The Frolic was well attended and the Juniors are happy to report that their first money-raising activity was a success.

At the suggestion of the Senior class the Juniors have elected their yearbook editor and assistant editor. They are Charlotte Wood and Helen Smith, respectively. These two editors are to work with the Senior yearbook staff in order to learn the whats, whys, and hows of a yearbook.

The Juniors are now busy planning their Junior Prom to be held May 6, 1955. We are looking forward to this event with a great deal of anticipation.

SOPHOMORE REPORT

President	JOHN ALGER
Vice President	DAVID STUART
Secretary	JOAN COOMBS
Treasurer	BERNARD BARCELO

Our first activity—a hayride—left us with frostbite on our noses and hayseed down our backs; yet our spirits remained high. A few months later, we skated and bowled at Rolland. When winter came upon us, we held an ice-skating party at Mill Pond in Harding.

The most recent activity was the selection and ordering of our class rings on Wednesday, March 2.

FRESHMAN REPORT

During the past year we have become acquainted with the routine of Medfield High. Our capable class officers are:

President	JAMES BOIS
Vice President	WILLIAM ANDERSON
Secretary	CAROLE EHNES
Treasurer	RICHARD SWALLOW

Our Student Council members are Carole Ehnes and George Nye. Remembering The Frolic brings back many hilarious memories, especially of the diapers and the mops! At the time though, the stunts were frightening.

In January the class had a delightful skating party at Rocky Woods. Many thanks to Florence Moody for the entertaining parties at her home. We all envy Florence now because she is traveling in the United States. Gilbert Beal, a former Student Council member, moved to New Hampshire.

We gained one new Freshman, Patrick Harris from Ohio.

We Salute You!

Congratulations and the best of luck! We at Loring are proud of the part we have had in helping to make your classbook a permanent reminder of your school years, recording with photographs one of the happiest and most exciting times of your life! We hope that, just as you have chosen us as your class photographer, you will continue to think of Loring Studios when you want photographs to help you remember other momentous days to come! When you choose Loring portraits, you are sure of the finest craftsmanship at the most moderate prices!

POOH!

There were times we thought we wouldn't
But we finally got it done,
It took a lot of effort,
But we had a lot of fun.

Here it is . . . we hope you like it!!!
